INTERNET ARCHIVE

Building Libraries together

Internet Archive is a non-profit library that works with libraries all over the world to create digital collections.

Scanning Services

now in over 33 regional libaries on 5 continents with 200 digitizing partners.

Desktop Book Scanning System

with full backend support and book hosting. Scan over 500 pages per hour.

ARCHIVE-IT

Subscription Web Archiving Service

9 billion URLS archived for 350 partner libraries, museums and archives.

25 million book edition records
[openlibrary.org]

7 million texts including 3 million books
[archive.org/details/texts]

130,000 Live Music concerts from over 6,000 bands
[archive.org/details/etree]

1.8 million movies and video items
[archive.org/details/movies]

450 billion page captures in the Wayback Machine
[archive.org/web]

650 Arcade and 2,300 MS-DOS games, all playable
[archive.org/details/internetarcade]

100,000 software items
[archive.org/details/software]

700,000 news broadcasts in the TV News Archive
[archive.org/details/tv]

2.25 million audio items
[archive.org/details/audio]

20 petabytes of unique data
200 pages served per second
33 billion total downloads